

Joining innovative dots in language education

Wednesday 12.12.2018, 12-16

University of Jyväskylä, Ruusupuisto

The first IKI- seminar introduces four innovations in language education with guest talks on multilingual pedagogy, coteaching, the use of stories and drama in different language learning environments. In line with the aim of IKI, this seminar hopes to share local, regional and international pedagogical innovations to enrich the language learning landscape. Welcome along!

Please register for coffee by sending an email to IKI project researcher Tea Kangasvieri: tea.s.m.kangasvieri@jyu.fi. (Last day of registration 7.12)

Seminar programme

-
- 12.00-12.10 Opening the seminar: Introducing IKI
- 12.10-13.10 Multilingual Pedagogy: Rationale, Implementation and Outcomes across the Grades.
Professor emeritus, Jim Cummins, University of Toronto / Åbo Akademi University
- 13.10-13.40 Coffee break
- 13.40-14.25 "Come teach with me!" - What co-teaching is & examples from ongoing research at ÅAU
Professor, Liselott Forsman, Åbo Akademi University
- 14.25- 15.05 Introducing TARU
Project manager/ Lecturer Merja Kauppinen, Karvi / JYU & University research fellow Juli Aerila, University of Turku
- 15.05- 15.50 Dramatizing language education
Dr Bethan Hulse, University of Chester
- 15.50-16.00 Closing words